Foreign troops and mercenaries have to leave Iran Stop the warlike behavior of the Regiemes

Iranian National Solidarity:

The hostile activities of the ruling system in Iran began with the founding of the revolution and rule of Islamic ideology in the Middle East, which began with the occupation of the American Embassy and the hostage-taking of diplomats.

These hostile activities were followed by the creation and financing of terrorist groups such as the Lebanese Hezbollah, the Houthis in Yemen, militant groups in Iraq, Afghanistan and Syria, as well as Pakistan and Hamas in Palestine.

Other examples in the chain of these activities are:

- 1- The execution of terrorist attacks by the Islamic Revolutionary Guards and intelligence services in Europe over the past four decades, including last year's terrorist attacks in France, Denmark and the Netherlands, as well as
- 2- The explosion of the AMIA building (Judaic Cultural Center) in Argentina, bombing of headquarters of American and French marines in Lebanon with over 210 dead, an explosion in Saudi-al-Khair, and the planned terrorist attack on the Saudi ambassador in the United States
- 3- Also, attempts by the government, to acquire nuclear weapons and interfere in the affairs of the countries of the region, despite the wishes of the Iranians, who clearly opposed the protests.
- 4- The ballistic missile development programs with the capability of carrying nuclear warheads and the destruction of other countries, as well as burning the national flag and the symbol of other nations, which contradicts the demands of the Iranian nation.
- 5- The unstoppable and belligerent behavior of the regime's oppressor system, the Revolutionary Guards, and the fostering of unrest herds in the region using paid mercenaries in the Middle East

These are examples known to all governments and the European Union.

The mentioned hostile activities of the regime in Iran have the following effects that, the country and the population are threatened mainly by corruption, poverty, and war, and that had the ostracism of the country, by the countries of the region and the world community.
